

YOU'RE INVITED . . .

to join other agencies and organizations who assist offenders in a successful re-entry transition into the community.

Community Information and Resource Fair

Wednesday, September 21, 2011 . 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Vineyard Christian Fellowship . 4950 Bradley Street . Garden City, Idaho

Purpose of the Information and Resource Fair

- Offer networking forum for organizations to promote and learn about transition and re-entry services
- Provide case managers, parole/probation officers, volunteers, mentors and workforce and employment consultants an opportunity to identify and understand the community resources available for offenders in transition and re-entry
- Identify offender friendly resources to enhance existing resource manuals

Participating Organizations

- Secular and faith-based organizations offering recovery programs and transition services
- City, county and state government agencies and programs
- Non-profit organizations such as thrift stores providing such items as clothing and bikes to those in need
- Organizations offering self-help programs, food, clothing, housing and referrals
- Community mental health and medical services
- Resources available to military veterans

To register go to: <http://labor.idaho.gov/community> For further information, contact Tim Leigh at timothy.leigh@labor.idaho.gov or 332-3575 ext. 3269. Deadline to reserve your table is Sept. 1, 2011. Current event partners include the Idaho Department of Labor, Idaho Department of Correction, Ada County Sheriff's Office, Supportive Housing and Innovative Partnerships, Vineyard Christian Fellowship, Circuit Rider Ministries, Bethel Ministries, Experience Works and more.